SERVE AWARDS

Congratulations to our SERVE (Students Earning Recognition for Various Endeavors) Award students. This week we recognize Anica Broekemeier for her willingness to serve; Tony Wu for his academic success; and Logan McDaniel for his outstanding soccer performance.

Announcements

Fall Concert - The Wind Ensemble, Concert Choir, and new strings ensemble will be performing at the annual MELHS Fall Concert on Thursday, October 19th at 7pm in the auxiliary gym. The groups will play a variety of music to set the mood for the changing season. We would love for you to join us to hear some great music and enjoy the hard work of our music students!

Fall Musical (Echoes of the Hammer) - One Hammer, Ninety-Five Theses, Nine Original Songs. The Story of Martin Luther is coming to the Lutheran High Stage for two nights ONLY! October 27th and 28th at 7pm. Lutheran High Students pairing up with grade school students from St. Paul Hamel will bring you a 45 minute musical outlining the life of Martin Luther, his struggles, and his accomplishments. Cost for admission: Free-Will donation. All money raised from this event will go toward replacing outdated wireless microphones. Come support the Theatre Program and enjoy the Live Musical!

Creative Writing and Book Club picked Something Wicked This Way Comes as its book for October. There is a link to an online copy of the book at the Edmodo page for the club. Also, remember to post your submission to the Creative Writing contest at the Edmodo page. If you are not already connected, the code is yi5swr.

MELHS Facebook Page - Please visit and like our page, and share posts. We will be posting silent and live auction items, special auction projects, and other auction news. (The link to our Facebook page can be found on the homepage of our website. Look for the Facebook logo at the bottom of the page.)

Reformation Walk - On October 29th, Holy Cross in Collinsville will celebrate Reformation 500 with festival worship at 8am and 10:30am, followed by a Reformation Walk 12pm-2:30pm.

Participants will first be served a meal of sausage and ‘stew’, then will have the opportunity to visit 10 stations which will depict different sounds, tastes, and life events from the time of Martin Luther and the beginning of the Reformation. Crafts, games, prizes, food, education, musical instruments, fellowship and prayer will make this an event for the whole family to enjoy! All are welcome. Call (344-3145) or email (HCLutherwalk@gmail.com) for more details.
