Announcements Continued

Field Day - Tuesday, September 18th we are hosting Field Day for area 3rd and 4th graders. Due to this there will be no parking on the main or side lot. All students will park north of the baseball field. Watch for teachers to be directing parking. A drop off lane will be available before school. Parents, if you need to come into the building before school, you can park temporarily in the main lot. Please watch for Field Day event set up. If you need to pick a student up during the event, please enter at the regular entrance and turn to the side road. After school there will be no restrictions.

Macho Man Volleyball and Powder Puff Football were highlights of this week's Spirit Week festivities. Here are some students cheering on their fellow classmates in volleyball and some girls dominating the field in football.
