Student Council is hosting a Trunk or Treat in our school parking lot on Thursday, Oct. 20, from 6 p.m.- 7:30 p.m. Those interested in entering a car should see Mrs. Morrison. Prizes will be awarded for the best individual and best group car.

Y4Life will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 8 p.m. at St. Paul Hamel for food, fun, and fellowship. They will be making locker signs that speak life and encouragement. Transportation is available from MELHS. For more information, contact Pam Meister at 618-799-9348.

SAT: Tomorrow, Oct. 6, is the registration deadline for the Nov. 5, SAT test.

The 43rd Night of Knights Auction will be held Friday, Nov. 4, from 5 p.m.- 9 p.m. at the Gateway Conference Center in Collinsville. Please join us for a fun night to help support our school. Funds raised help provide safety initiatives, technology upgrades, and assist in scholarships for financially constrained families. To reserve your tickets today, go to:

How can you help with this year's auction? Don't have time to help with the auction? No problem! Donations from the MELHS family is what makes our auction a success. Here are some popular items to consider:

Services: Cleaning, baby and pet sitting, music lessons, meals, desserts, handyman, yard work, car detailing

Items: Electronics, tools, jewelry, fresh produce, a side of beef, original artwork

Activities: Tickets (sports, theater, symphony), vacations (a timeshare you're not using?), wine tastings, game nights, date nights, cooking classes.

No time to shop? Cash donations are welcome!

Donations are tax deductible. All non-perishable items are needed by Oct. 14.

Cheer camp

The MELHS cheer squad recently hosted a cheerleading camp for students in grades 1-8, then the campers had a chance to join the MELHS cheerleaders to cheer during the home football game.

College

To attend a college visit, juniors and seniors need to see Mrs. Behrhorst the day before the visit to receive a pass. You must still get permission from your teacher for the time that you will miss from class.

- University of Illinois (1:30 p.m.) - 10/14

Seniors:

- If you need a transcript sent to a college or university, please fill out a transcript request form. They can be found in the office. There is no charge to send transcripts while you are a current student here.
- Let Mr. Stock know of any scholarships you have been awarded. We want to keep track of the Class of 2023!

Announcements Continued

Donuts will be for sale for $1 during homeroom on Tuesdays starting this week in the office commons. Come support the Drama Club by buying a donut (or two)!

Attention Baseball Players: Any student interested in playing boys baseball in the spring should sign up on the sheets outside of Mr. Langendorf's room (Room 20).

Attention Bowlers: If you are interested in bowling this year, come sign up in Mr. Giordano's room (Room 103).

Football spirit: The cheerleading squad would like us to help show our school spirit at upcoming home football games. Here are the dates and the themes:

Friday, Oct. 14- Jersey

Friday, Oct. 21- Pink out

Now hiring: Good Shepherd Lutheran School, Collinsville is now hiring for its TRACKS program, which provides before and after care for grades 1-8. The primary duty is supervision of students. Hours are school days 6 a.m.-7:45a.m. and 3 p.m.-6 p.m. Shifts of any days/combination of hours can be accommodated. For more information, please contact Angela Dixon at 618-578-8480, adixon@gscls.org

Concordia University Chicago has their Annual Careers for Christ Program Oct. 28-30. Future students learn about ministry to the church, connect with current students and faculty in church work programs, and are inspired by the Word of God. Online registration is available at CUChicago.edu/C4C.
