Lady Knights wrap up bowling season

The Knights girls bowling team recently competed at IHSA regionals in Highland. In the midst of competition against much larger schools, like Triad, Edwardsville, and Highland, each of our girls set some personal bests. Emma Gusewelle had her season-high series score, and Claire Terracina set a career-best single game score. Katie Albrecht set a season-high series mark in the morning and then again in the afternoon, and she had a career-best 164 score in the last game of the day. Congrats to our Knights bowlers!
