Announcements

Lost and Found: Students should check out the lost and found on the table in the office commons. They could be reunited with their long-lost personal item.

Mark your calendars to support the After Prom fundraising efforts. MOD Pizza will be hosting a dine to donate on Sunday, April 14, all day. Just use the code MODGIVES25 by ordering online or show the attached flier when you order.

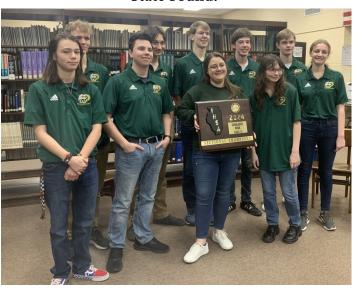

Donations are being accepted for After Prom - prizes and food/drinks. A Sign Up Genius link will be sent out soon for specific items needed. Stay tuned! Items donated in the past include gift cards to local businesses, gas cards, dorm room or apartment-related items such as microwaves, mini refrigerators, etc. Any donations can be brought to the school office. Thank you for your support!

Seniors please turn in your senior profile form to the office as soon as possible. You may make adjustments to your form after turning it in by speaking to Mrs. Behrhorst. This information is for the graduation folder.

Course request forms: Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors should return their completed and signed course request forms at their earliest convenience to ensure that they get the classes they need for next school year.

Reenrollment: Reenrollment is now open for the 2024-2025 school year. All MELHS families should have received an email March 1 with instructions on the reenrollment process. The reenrollment fee is $500 through March 31, then goes up to $550 through April 30. The fee for any reenrollment completed on or after May 1 is $600. If you have any questions about the reenrollment process, contact Ms. Hamlin in the office: sheila.hamlin@melhs.org.

State bound!

The MELHS Scholar Bowl team once again went undefeated during the sectional tournament on Saturday to win the Sectional Championship. They had three definitive victories, defeating Auburn by a score of 510 –160, Marquette Catholic by 550-130, and Southwestern by a score of 470-180. They will be headed to Bloomington this weekend for the state tournament. Good luck Knights!
